Here's what makes our butter and butterfats organic:

- Organic Valley farms are certified organic by the USDA.
- Organic Valley farmers do not use antibiotics, synthetic hormones, toxic pesticides or GMOs.
- Organic animal feed cannot contain GMOs.
- USDA-certified organic products are eligible for export to Canada or the EU under an arranged Equivalency Arrangement. EU organic standards allow antibiotics for livestock, so any products derived from treated animals cannot be exported to the U.S. as organic.
- Organic Valley also certifies to China's National Organic Standards. Selected products are eligible for export to China as organic.
